

Board to Take Over County Health Dept.

Today at an organizational meeting of the Hempstead County Board of Health, the following officers were elected:

Ralph Lehman, president, W. R. Roulton, vice president and Mrs. Cline Franks, secretary-treasurer, who along with Mrs. W. M. Duckett and Dr. Forney Holt comprise the County Board of Health.

On Nov. 17, 1960 a County Board of Health was appointed which Board under Arkansas law is the policy making body of the Health Department and supervises all of the department's functions and activities.

Previously most of the public health programs and functions have been carried on in Hempstead County under the sole direction of the County Health Nurse. Under this new departmental arrangement the administrative head of the department is the public health officer, a full-time administrator.

With the construction of the new City-County Public Health Center the officials of the County and City of Hope feel that it would best serve the public interest to create an official department of Public Health as recommended by the Arkansas State Board of Health and pursuant to Official Acts of the State Legislature.

Organization Meets County Health Board

THE COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH OF HEMPSTEAD County, which will operate the new City-County Health Center, held its organizational meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Cline Franks, board member, on the Palmos road. Meeting with the board was the new county judge, Orie O. Byers.

IN THE PICTURE LEFT TO RIGHT: HOPE CITY MANAGER G. C. Medders, Mrs. Cline Franks, secretary-treasurer and 4-year-term member of the board; Dr. Forney Holt, 2-year-term board member; William R. Roulton, vice-president and 3-year-term board member; Mrs. William Duckett, 1-year-term board member; Ralph Lehman, board president and 5-year-term member; County Judge Orie O. Byers.

ALSO ATTENDING THE ORGANIZATION MEETING BUT absent from the picture was City Attorney C. V. Nunn, Jr., who read the law and explained the duties of the county board with regard to the City-County Health Center. He explained that the center was constructed for about $81,000, of which the city and county contributed $13,500 each and the federal government the balance, plus a $3,000 land donation by the city. The five board members are named by the county judge to five-year terms, one position expiring each year.

Man Wanted in Torso Slaying

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An alert asked by Arkansas authorities went out to New Orleans police to pick up a former ship's butcher in the butcher slaying of a wealthy Arkansas farmer E. G. MacDonald.

The police broadcast did not identify the man by name but said he was a part-time resident of New Orleans and was believed to be in the city.

Police in Arkansas said MacDonald was murdered at Mena, Ark., and parts of his body were found in a well three miles from the home he occupied with his 50-year-old wife.

Mrs. MacDonald is in jail at Covington, La., across Lake Pontchartrain from New Orleans, charged with her husband's murder. She admitted disposing of parts of the body, police said, but denied she murdered him.

Earlier today, Dan Stephens, an aide to Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus, said in Little Rock, La., that Louisiana had rejected on technical grounds a request for extradition of Mrs. MacDonald.

4-H Council to Have Guest Speakers

The Hempstead County 4-H Council will have Earl Hooker and Dean Atkins of DeQueen as special guests of the regular monthly meeting Monday, Jan. 16 at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Hooker is president of the State 4-H adult leaders council. Mr. Atkins is associated with the Southwestern Gas and Electric Company which makes available to 4-H boys and girls certain electric awards for achievement in projects dealing with electricity.

The county council includes 4-H boys and girls from the clubs in the county and the adult leaders. The meeting will be held in the large courtroom of the county courthouse.

Miss Janet Roberts, the council president will preside and Jimmy Carver, program chairman, will introduce the guests. 4-H members and leaders are urged to attend this first meeting of the year.

Laos Strafes Communist Positions

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian governments four newly acquired planes from the United States pounded the pro-Communist rebels' artillery positions 70 miles north of Vientiane today for the third straight day.

No reports were available so far on the damage but military experts said the Laotian pilots—trained in France and Thailand—probably would need more of flying to sharpen their aim.

So far there was no sign of air retaliation from the Soviet Union, Communist China or North Viet Nam, which support the Pathet Lao rebels. But Western intelligence sources reported an old model Soviet spitter plane was observed directing rebel artillery fire on Monday, the day before the United States delivered the four propeller-driven trainer planes the government forces are using.

Use of the planes for attack missions raised fears among British and French diplomats here that the Soviets or Red Chinese would supply combat planes for use against the anti-Communist forces.

The planes were reported attacking in the area of the Nam Le River, 70 miles north of Vientiane, where two companies of government forces were reported engaged with a rebel force of about the same size.

Army sources said Premier Boun Oum's government is applying steady pressure on this front in an effort to link up with government units pushing down from Luang Prabang, the royal capital.

Some Counties Gain in House Reshuffle Plan

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Some Arkansas counties apparently stand to gain representation and others to lose in a reshuffling of the state's 25 "surplus" House seats which is supposed to be completed by Feb. 1.

Each of the state's 75 counties must have one (1) representative in the 100-member Arkansas House and the remaining 25 positions, by the Constitution, are to be reapportioned among the most thickly-settled counties after each federal census.

Fifteen counties now share in the extra representatives. Pulaski has a total of eight representatives. The number ranges down to two for each of 11 counties.

Pulaski, Jefferson and possibly Miller are among the counties which seem destined to get increased representation.

Pulaski, which already has twice as many representatives as any other county, rose from a population of 196,635 in 1950 to 242,980 in 1960.

Jefferson, which now has three representatives, showed a healthy gain during the decade and overtook Mississippi, which lost inhabitants, as the state's second most populous county.

Mississippi now has four representatives.

Miller now has only the minimum one representative but although it lost population during the 10-year period it has more inhabitants than either Ouachita or Poinsett, both of which now send two representatives to the House, but whose population losses were greater.

There is no constitutional requirement that the excess house seats have to be divided among 15 counties or any other number but the constitution says they are to be allotted as nearly as possible on the basis of population.

The apportionment is the duty of a State Board of Apportionment whose members are Gov. Orval E. Faubus, as chairman, Atty. Gen. Frank Holt and Secretary of State C. G. Hall.

Faubus said Thursday the new plan would be filed by Feb. 1, the deadline set by the constitution. If it isn't, or if after it is filed any resident thinks it is unfair, a suit may be brought in the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Sebastian County, like Jefferson, now has three representatives. It showed a slight gain between 1950 and 1960 and is still the state's fourth most populous county.

The 11 counties now having two representatives each are Benton, Craighead, Crittenden, Garland, Ouachita, Phillips, Poinsett, St. Francis, Union, Washington and White.

Next to the four most populous, the top counties in population now rank in this order: Washington, Union, Crittenden, Craighead, Garland, Phillips, Benton, St. Francis, White, Miller and Ouachita.

In 1950, the rank of the 15 counties then leading in population was: Pulaski, Mississippi, Jefferson, Sebastian, Craighead, Washington, Union, Crittenden, Benton, Garland, Phillips, Poinsett, Benton, White, St. Francis and Ouachita. Poinsett has now fallen to 18th.

Seeks Okay for New Gas Line

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Western Gas Co. has asked the Arkansas Public Service Commission for permission to build a $21,000 transmission line from its existing system to Franklin County gas fields, to increase the company's capacity by 13 million cubic feet daily.

Uruguay Has Ordered Out Cuba Convoys

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The Uruguayan government has ordered the Cuban ambassador and the Soviet Embassy's first secretary out of the country, charging they were connected with pro-Castro demonstrations and street fights.

The expulsion order was voted Thursday night by Uruguay's 9-man governing council, which reportedly is split 5-4 against an outright break in diplomatic relations with Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The decision declaring Cuban Ambassador Mario Garcia Inchaustegui and Soviet First Secretary Mikhail K. Samoilov persona non grata brought still another demonstration by admirers of Castro. A crowd of about 4,000 gathered in Montevideo's streets, shouting "Cuba yes! Yankees no!"

A force of 1,500 police wearing steel helmets prevented any violence.

The governing council acted after police stormed into Communist headquarters here Wednesday, and arrested 139 persons and seized documents.

Officials said the raid was on a judge's order to arrest persons who beat an anti-Castro partisan to death in front of the headquarters. So far no one has been charged with the death.

The man was killed in a fight that spread over 20 blocks Tuesday night when about 1,000 Castro adherents tried to break up an anti-Castro rally of about 3,000. Scores were injured.

The pro-Castro demonstrations have been building up here while the government debated whether to break relations with Cuba. In addition to the United States, Peru, Guatemala and the Dominican Republic have cut their diplomatic link with the Castro regime. Haiti, Nicaragua, Paraguay and Colombia have called their ambassadors home from Havana. Castro repeatedly has urged that the masses in other Latin American countries adopt his revolutionary tactics.

Legislature Restrained in Racial Fight

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal court today issued a restraining order against the legislature's latest attempt to oust Dr. James F. Redmond as New Orleans school superintendent.

A hearing for a temporary injunction was set for Feb. 10.

Dr. Redmond said at his office: "I am back on the job and will let the federal government and the legislature argue the point. I see no point in getting into any arguments."

The legislature, now in its third straight special session called to fight public school integration, Thursday passed a resolution to oust Dr. Redmond. Redmond said the resolution took him by surprise, that he thought a federal restraining order issued last Nov. 30 barred further action.

The Nov. 30 order held Act 17 and House Concurrent Resolution 18 of the first special session of 1960 unconstitutional. The latest ouster move was based upon that act and resolution.

Cold Front Lashes the West Coast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold front which lashed the Washington and Oregon coastlines with high winds and battering waves drove inland today with rains in the Northwest and snow over the northern Rockies.

The storm Thursday night heaped mountainous breakers in the mouth of the Columbia River at Astoria, Ore., capsizing two small Coast Guard vessels and a crab boat they were seeking to help. Four Coast Guardsmen and two fishermen were missing and feared drowned.

On the Atlantic, a seagoing barge sank in heavy seas 10 miles off West Palm beach, Fla., and seven crewmen were reported missing. One man was rescued.

For much of the nation, it was a sunny day with warming air over the North Atlantic states and colder air flow over the upper Plains.

The West Coast again had temperatures in the 40s, with 40s and 50s in the extreme Southwest and east from Texas through the Gulf states to the Atlantic. Florida had readings in the 60s.

Eddie Holland Is Superstitious

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eddie Holland, a movie theater manager, is rightly superstitious about Friday the 13th.

He was born on the 13th, married on the 13th, has a 13-year-old daughter who was born on the 13th, served with the 13th Air Force and has a brother-in-law—also born on the 13th—who has been married 13 years.

To celebrate his 41st birthday today, Holland is giving free popcorn to every 13th customer at his theater.

Woman Injured in Accident

Georgia L. McGee, Texarkana, was injured this morning when the car which she was driving hit a bridge railing on Highway 67 just beyond Fulton in Miller County. She suffered cuts and bruises about the face and was being treated in a local hospital this afternoon. State Policeman Pankey investigated.

Louisiana Refuses Extradition

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dan Stephens, an aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus, said today that Louisiana had rejected a request for extradition of Mrs. Norma MacDonald in connection with the slaying of her husband.

Stephens said Louisiana returned the extradition papers because they were based on a bill of information and should have been based on a bill of indictment.

He said the papers would be sent to Prosecutor Ben Cure in Mena for correction and return to Louisiana.

Mrs. MacDonald, accused in the killing of her 73-year-old husband, has refused to waive extradition from Covington, La., where she was arrested. MacDonald's mutilated body was found in a well near Mena.

Burglars Get $109 at Fulton Store

A. O. Bright's store at Fulton was entered last night and $109.60 taken from the cash drawer. Sheriff Jimmie Griffin said today.

The burglar entered the building through the back door and took only money. The investigation continues.

W. S. C. S. and Wesleyan Guild Have Joint Supper Meeting

A meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild and the Women's Society of Christian Service was held on Monday evening at 6:45 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

The meeting began with a covered dish supper served from tables decorated with red berries and greenery. Mrs. L. C. Gatlin gave the invocation.

Following the supper the meeting was called to order by Mrs. P. A. Escarre, president of the W. S. C. S. Mrs. O. G. Hirst played as a prelude. "Light of the World" followed by prayer by Mrs. Escarre. Visitors, Mrs. Fred Calloway, Mrs. L. C. Dill and Mrs. S. B. Scott, were recognized. Recognition was given to each of the four circles and the chairman, Mrs. Floyd Wren, Mrs. Johnnie Hooks, Mrs. Bob Yarbrough and Mrs. Tillman Worthington gave reports.

The night circle presented the program and Mrs. H. H. McKenzie program chairman for the year, introduced Mrs. Tillman Worthington who was in charge. The group sang "Break Now Bread of Life" followed by prayer. The program was entitled "Recalling Our Heritage and Expanding Our Horizons" Mrs. Worthington presented four portraits of the past with Mrs. L. C. Gatlin, Mrs. W. R. Hambright, Mrs. J. A. Cole and Mrs. P. A. Escarre taking part. A panel composed of Mrs. Adrain Blackmon, Mrs. Delmer Tyree, Mrs. Lewis Wolf, Mrs. Charles Avery, Mrs. Don Mitchell and Mrs. Gervail Taylor, discussed "Expanding Our Horizons." Mrs. Worthington closed with prayer.

Committees in charge were in kitchen; Mrs. Lloyd Haynie, Mrs. C. W. Eley, Miss Carolyn Scott, Mrs. Bob Yarbrough and Mrs. Wallace Sage; decoration, Mrs. Johnson Hooks and Mrs. Floyd Wren.

WOC Has General Meeting

The January meeting of the Women of the Presbyterian Church was held Monday in the McRae Bible Room of the church with 18 members present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. R. Bemis and she gave a meditation on "The Last Day of 1960" and led in prayer. The minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Jennie Lewis. Mrs. Tom Bemis, treasurer, gave a financial statement. Reports of general officers and chairmen were heard. The world mission season of prayer will be observed in February. A study will be held at the church Monday, Feb. 6 at 1:30.

Mrs. C. H. Moore had charge of the program and spoke on God Calls His People to be a Community of Love. The scripture reading was from Ephesians. Mrs. J. R. Bemis voiced the closing prayer.

Kennedy Uses Stevenson's Associates

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Kennedy is going through Adlai Stevenson's law firm like a vacuum cleaner.

He has already picked three members of the firm—including Stevenson—for top jobs in his administration, is expected to name another shortly, and gave a key post to a former Stevenson law-associate.

All were long-time friends of Stevenson and his backers for the Democratic presidential nomination. But when Kennedy got it this year, they worked for him. And all know him personally, too.

It could be assumed Kennedy was paying off a political debt to them and or Stevenson for the help they gave him this year or was acknowledging his debt to the liberal view they represent and represented in the campaign.

But this writer contacted a number of people who know all the men given these choice assignments and they prefer to think Kennedy did his picking because these friends of Stevenson are brainy, distinguished men.

These are the three members of the firm already tapped: Stevenson, as ambassador to the United Nations; Newton W. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; and W. Willard Wirtz, undersecretary of labor.

Kennedy shortly is expected to name another member of the Stevenson Chicago law office — William Blair—as an ambassador. Blair, rich in his own right and able to pay an ambassador's bills, is a long-time Kennedy family friend.

Kennedy chose George W. Ball, associated with Stevenson in a Chicago law firm back in the early 1940s, as undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

Minow 34, served as law clerk for the then Chief Justice Fred Vinson and was administrative assistant to Stevenson when the latter was governor of Illinois more than eight years ago.

Wirtz, 46, has a long experience in the labor field and has known the man who will be his new boss, Arthur Goldberg, secretary of labor, a long time. It's Goldberg who may have done the actual picking of Wirtz.

Besides being a professor of law at Northwestern University, Wirtz is also an arbitrator in labor disputes. During the war he served on various government bodies. Like many others called to Washington, Wirtz went to Harvard—

Readmission Sought to Georgia U

MACON, Ga. (AP)—A legal move seeking readmission of two Negro students to the University of Georgia was planned today as the FBI and the Georgia Legislature opened separate investigations into rioting on the university campus.

The students were suspended following an anti-integration demonstration in which stones and firecrackers were thrown and police used tear gas. They were taken from the campus at Athens early Thursday and returned to their homes in Atlanta.

Constance Motley, an attorney for Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, promptly asked the U.S. District Court in Macon to reverse the suspension.

In overruling her oral motion, U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle suggested a written motion be filed. The judge conferred with Mrs. Motley and attorneys for the state and then said court would reconvene at 2 p. m. today.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers disclosed in Washington the Justice Department was "initiating a preliminary investigation of reported mob action at the University of Georgia to ascertain whether or not federal law violations occurred."

The Georgia House of Representatives named a special five-man subcommittee to begin hearings in Athens today to check conflicting reports and rumors of recent happenings at the university.

House Speaker George L. Smith II said in a statement he was confident the subcommittee would "neither whitewash the event nor engage in a witch hunt."

More than half the 600 members of the Georgia faculty Thursday night unanimously adopted a resolution saying, "We insist that the two suspended students be returned to their classes."

The resolution also urged "all measures necessary to the protection of students and faculty and to the preservation of orderly education be taken by appropriate state authorities."

Fifty student leaders began circulating petitions protesting violence and urging "decisive action" by university officials.

These developments in the state's week-old integration crisis occurred shortly after Judge Bootle issued a far-reaching decision invalidating that portion of Georgia's appropriations act which bans use of tax monies for support of an integrated public school or college.

The judge continued in effect an injunction granted Tuesday against Gov. Ernest Vandiver and other state officials which had kept them from closing the university by cutting off funds.

The governor had no comment on the federal order. But he made it clear at a news conference he had no plans to help Miss Hunter and Holmes return to classes at the university.

Mrs. Hollis Samuels Hostess to DeAnn Lilac Garden Club

The DeAnn Lilac Garden Club met Jan. 11 in the home of Mrs. Hollis Samuel with Mrs. Leroy Samuel as co-hostess. Mrs. C. B. O'Steen, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Arnold was in charge of a short program. The members each brought a dried arrangement, and in judging them the winner was Mrs. Carlton Samuel.

Spiced tea and assorted tidbits were served the members and two guests, Mrs. Elbert Burke and Mrs. Eros Samuel.

Miss JoJo Owens Completes Wedding Plans

Miss JoJo Owens, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Owens and the late Wier Owens, has completed plans for her wedding to Reuben Ray Reed, son of Mrs. Frances Reed of Nashville and the late William A. Reed.

The ceremony will be performed at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 26 in the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Rufus Sorrells officiating.

No cards will be sent, and all friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Kennedy Has Assets of $10 Million

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy appears to have investment assets valued at perhaps up to $10 million.

This was indicated Thursday night when it was disclosed that Kennedy has converted all of his investments over which he had control into government bonds—federal, state and municipal.

Pierre Salinger, his press secretary, told newsmen in response to questions that the president-elect's total holdings now consist of such bonds, plus the houses he owns in Washington and at Hyannis Port, Mass., and three trust funds set up for him and his brothers and sisters by their father, Joseph P. Kennedy.

Salinger said the president-elect's income from these trusts—set up in 1926, 1936 and 1949—amounts to about $100,000 annually, after taxes. The income before taxes reportedly is about $500,000 a year.

Assuming interest at the rate of about 4 to 5 per cent, the funds could have a principal value of close to $10 million. Kennedy has others, including the undisclosed value of investments he has converted into government bonds.

His home in Washington's fashionable Georgetown area reportedly is valued at about $100,000. The Hyannis Port place is an additional asset.

Salinger refused to give figures

UN Forces Rescue Many Europeans

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—U.N. forces fanned out across Kivu Province today to rescue Europeans, including two white nuns, from racial violence threatened by rebel Congo soldiers.

A U.N. spokesman said 29 American missionaries and their families are now under U.N. protection in Bukavu, capital of the province controlled by supporters of ousted Premier Patrice Lumumba.

A Belgian mother superior and one nun from a hospital in Bukavu were arrested Thursday on vague charges of misusing funds. U.N. officials are seeking their release.

on Kennedy's holdings beyond the income realized from the trust funds.

The three trusts are irrevocable, which means the president-elect has no control over investment of the principal. His mother reportedly is one of the trustees.

A line which flares from shoulder to hem is apparent in all three of these new coat designs for fall and winter. Boucle plaid (left) combines two of autumn's flared back. A bold imported English plaid is used (right) for this tapered big trends: plaid and fur trim. Cape collar is in luxurious black beaver. Snow coat with back fullness released from under mushroom collar. Huge patch flake fleece coat (center) is done in artful shadings of brown, blue and wine. Pockets are placed at either side just for fun. Coats shown are Leeds designs.

Husband Believes In Off-Base Glitter

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

My husband made a remark the other night that hurt me deeply. He said, "Marriage is a business like any other. Its success depends upon the people who build it." Then added, and here is where the hurt comes in, "A man would be a fool to pass up a better opportunity — as for example, if a young and wealthy woman showed an eagerness to marry him and share her wealth."

I have always regarded marriage as a sacred contract which nothing can break. I say, "Believe in each other; share your problems and work them out — together."

My husband thinks I am too sentimental — even after 15 years of marriage. Am I such a fool? — J. B.

Dear J. B.: Your husband, not you, is the fool if he thinks youth and money justification for switching wives. He's talking like a conscienceless European lounge lizard, not a self-respecting American husband.

Let's hope he's only trying to find out where you stand. Stick to your guns. Continue to expect him to return the love and loyalty you give. Tell him all that glitters is not gold.

Dear Helen:

I will be 13 in May and in the seventh grade. All my girl friends get to wear lipstick and all but one are a few months younger than I.

My mother and father say I can't wear lipstick but won't tell me why not. I don't want to be the odd-ball of the crowd. Please help me. — C.

Dear C.: Your father and mother are right about not wanting you to wear lipstick. They probably feel as I do that painted lips on a little 13 year old girl looks about as incongruous as high heels on a baby.

Dear Helen:

I enjoy reading your column. Even though some of the love triangle cases, especially those of married women, are rather sickening, you very patiently advise them. Me! I'd hawl them out proper! Send me your leaflet, "So You Want to Write." —Mrs. M.

Judges Elect New Officers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Sheriffs Association wound up its annual meeting Thursday with the election of Joe Wood of Wynne (Cross County) as president and a request that the Legislature raise constitutional limits on county salaries.

The sheriffs sent to the lawmakers a proposed constitutional amendment which would have raised it to $10,000 was defeated in the November general election.

Maximums in counties above 50,000 population would be $9,850 under the sheriff's new plan. A scale is set so that counties below 10,000 population would have an $8,000 minimum.

Vice presidents elected Thursday were: first, Doyle Duncan, Calhoun County; second, Courtney Langston, Lee; third, Lonnie Cooper, Craighead; fourth, C. R. Burgess, Miller; fifth, Hollis Spencer, Washington; sixth, C. T. Sullivan, Poinsett; seventh, Harold Norton, Jefferson.

Robert S. Moore of Desha County was elected secretary.

CHAPTER XXIX

It was 14 miles to the LJ with-out going around by the Quarter Circle JB, and he decided to take the short cut. He was jogging along, only an hour from the LJ when he saw dust on the prairie to his left front, and stopped long enough to identify Stella Harding's chestnut gelding, traveling in the general direction of Xenophon Jones' camp of the night before.

He put the black into a gallop as soon as he got a little distance away from his stopping point, and now he began to use his spurs. The black was a big horse, fast and with plenty of bottom, and he had no doubt it could outrun the chestnut by considerable over a stretch.

Bart cut her off with the black in 10 minutes of hard riding. He rode up alongside and grabbed the chestnut's cheek strap and brought it down to a halt. Stella was furious. "What do you think you're doing? Who gave you a right to stop me?"

"I took the right," he said. "Where you going?"

Her black eyes were defiant. "For a ride."

"Ride back to the ranch with me."

"I don't want to ride with you."

She held a six-shooter in her hand. He smiled. "It's not in position to shoot," he told her, and in one smooth motion seized the barrel. He turned the cylinder and pushed out the cartridges, then gave it back to her. "Remember to load it the next time you go somewhere, in case you want to shoot a snake."

She struck at him with the empty six shooter. He dodged, and the gun hit the cantle, and the front sight slashed a furrow in the leather covering.

The black jumped forward, but Bart turned it and circled in behind her. "Stella," he said, "I hope you get control of your temper before we reach the LJ."

She rode for a while in sullen silence.

"Do you expect a bunch of farmers to beat men like Xenophon Jones and Stud Murphy and Piggie Benson?" She looked at him with new fire in her eyes.

"Those men are killers!"

He smiled wryly. She thought it was as simple as a stand-up and shot-down fight. "They have yellow in them too."

"Not if they know what they're going up against."

"And you were going to tell them tonight," he observed.

She swung back, again furious. "You tricked me!"

Bart, however, was counting up the deadly results of the information she had intended to give them. If they should know definitely that the ranchers were depending on Bart Wagner, their course would be simple: to converge their fire on Bart and take him out of the fight immediately. In such a case, Bart would never know the outcome, for he would be dead beyond any question.

They rode in silence for a hundred yards. "What are you going to tell them at the ranch?" she asked.

"What would you have told them?" Bart replied.

"That I went for a ride," she said.

"I'll tell them you were lost and I found you."

"They will know better."

He shrugged. "They probably know you're not out riding aimlessly, too. Hector knew where you were the other night."

Her face contorted.

He met Tom Harding after Stella disappeared in the house.

"Have a drink, Bart?"

"I'm a little dry," Bart admitted.

"They had the drink inside. 'No liquor allowed on the place as far as the hands are concerned,' said Harding. 'I keep it here and I use it like all the other ranchers in the Panhandle, but there's no drinking and no gambling among the help. Saves a lot of trouble.'"

Bart leaned back against the barn, watching the house, his hands locked behind his head. "You better keep an eye on Stella. It won't be too good for her to go out today, with that gang coming down from Tascosa. They will all be liquored up and wild—and they might figure she knows something and try to get it out of her."

"You're right," said Harding. "I'll speak to Hector."

Bart said easily, "She might resent Hector because he is your foreman. You better pick somebody else she won't notice."

Harding sighed. "She's a high-spirited girl. I don't know how I'll ever make her satisfied out here on the ranch."

Bart paused. "It will work out,"

ABC Went on With Show, Untouchables

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten stations of the American Broadcasting Co. presented the taped TV show "The Untouchables" Thursday night despite a warning from the director of the U.S. Bureau of Prisons.

At the end of the one-hour program came a network announcement that nothing in the show was intended to reflect on the integrity of the bureau.

In a telegram last Monday the bureau's director, James V. Byrnes, told the 10 TV stations that his organization would oppose renewal of their broadcasting licenses if they showed the second installment of the two-part program called "The Big Train."

The theme—admittedly fiction—involved an abortive attempt by mobsters to free Al Capone from a transcontinental train transferring him and other prisoners from Atlanta to Alcatraz prison in San Francisco Bay. The show depicted a prison guard as being in cahoots with Capone.

Bennett, after the first installment, asked ABC to withhold the second until he had consulted with the Federal Communications Commission and the U.S. attorney general.

"To picture honorable and courageous officers as venal, and a public institution like the Atlanta Penitentiary as toadying to a character like Capone," said Bennett, "is an unforgivable public disservice."

Omar F. Elder Jr., vice president and general counsel of ABC, had wired a reply to Bennett in which he said he doubted anyone would interpret the unfavorable portrayal of one or two guards as "representative of, or cast any general reflection upon, the integrity of other members of that group."

Monti Sets Pace of San Diego Meet

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eric Monti of Los Angeles, who was seven strokes off the pace a year ago, led the field into the second round of the $20,000 San Diego golf tournament today.

The 41-year-old teaching professional had a brilliant first-round 66, five-under-par. But he was only one stroke ahead of his nearest rival as play was resumed over the par 35-36-71 Mission Valley County Club course.

In a three-way tie for second place at 67 were Gary Players of South Africa, who missed a $10,000 hole-in-one prize by 10 inches Thursday; Jerry Barber, 135-pound veteran from Los Angeles, and Marty Furgol, another old-timer who won the tournament in 1959.

Just two shots behind Monti were six threats—Bob Goalby, the Los Angeles Open winner last Monday; ex-National PGA champion Lionel Hebert; Bo Winger, Don January, Frank Boynton and Darrell Hickock.

Best known name in the 69-bracket was Arnold Palmer, who rebounded from his sad 12-stroke blowup on one hole in the Los Angeles Open that sent him out of play after two rounds. Palmer shot a 34-35 to tie Billy Casper Jr., and eight others in the San Diego event.

Some of the other better known pros faced rougher going. Mike Souchak, the 1960 San Diego winner, was tied at 72, with Art Wall Jr., and Dow Finsterlaid and others.

First Week Is Quiet in Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The 63rd Arkansas Legislature wound up its first week's work Thursday with the session's biggest problem—congressional redistricting—apparently headed for an early solution.

The quick-starting lawmakers got the ceremonies and preliminaries out of the way without a hitch and jumped into a mass of proposed legislation.

Both houses adjourned Thursday until 2 p.m. Monday.

The Senate Thursday passed the so-called Mays plan for rearranging the state's congressional districts. The House, in which 59 representatives have approved the plan, has set a hearing on the Mays bill for Tuesday.

The state must lose two of its six congressmen because of a population loss. This necessitates rearranging the districts.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday that if the Mays plan clears both houses, he will ask that it be held by the clerk in hopes that Congress will relent and let Arkansas keep its six lawmakers.

If Congress "freezes" representation, as the Arkansas Senate requested in a resolution Thursday, the Mays plan could be recalled. If Congress refuses, then Faubus could sign the plan into law.

The first two important proposals from Faubus' 1961 legislative program reached the floor of the Senate Thursday.

One would appropriate $100,000 to be used to pay half the cost of fighting integration lawsuits and the other would appropriate $1.6 million for construction of a Revenue Department building on the capital grounds.

Lobbyists also put in a good week's work. Ten participating institutions Thursday reiterated their support of a proposed $50

Rodgers to Be Coach at Ouachita

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—R. D. (Rab) Rodgers will add the duties of football coach to those of athletic director at Ouachita Baptist College, picking up where he left off in 1957.

Rodgers was hired Thursday night by Ouachita's board of trustees to succeed Lamar Watkins as head football coach.

Rodgers coached the Tigers from 1950 through 1957 but resigned to handle baseball and concentrate on his post of athletic director. Bobby Gill will be retained as assistant football coach and he will take over Rodgers' million construction bond issue and set up a committee to help get it approved by the Legislature.

The institutions are the University of Arkansas, the seven state-supported colleges, the State Hospital and the Children's Colony.

The bond issue would be financed by a proposed penny a bottle soft drink tax. It would have to be approved in a statewide election.

Next to redistricting, the educational financing measure was the most controversial facing the General Assembly. Lawmakers agreed in a pre-session poll.

Under the Mays redistricting plan, congressmen Oren Harris of El Dorado and W. P. Norrell of Monticello would share one new district and Wilbur Mills of Kensett and Dale Alford of Little Rock would share another.

Congressmen Jim Trimble of Berryville and E. C. Gathings of West Memphis would have districts to themselves.

The four districts are roughly (1) east Arkansas, (2) north central, (3) northwest and (4) south. There were only two main objections raised to the plan in the Senate. Conway County wants in District 2 instead of District 3, and Jefferson, Arkansas and Lincoln counties want in District 4 instead of District 1.

Lawmakers from Jefferson, Arkansas and Lincoln protested that they were a part of south Arkansas and shouldn't be lumped into the eastern district.

Population-wise, districts 1, 2 and 4 are roughly equal with about 479,000 people each. The northwest district has 348,274.

Sens. Morrell Gathright and Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff failed in an attempt to amend the plan and introduced their own bill in an attempt to get Jefferson and Lincoln counties out of District 4. Sen. Tom Allen of Brinkley failed in an attempt to amend the Mays plan to get Arkansas County into the southern district.

One Senate bill introduced Thursday calls for state constitutional convention. The proposal was introduced in the House Wednesday. If the bill passes, the convention probably would be held next fall and the rewritten constitution would be submitted to a vote of the people.

Sixteen new bills reached the Senate Thursday and the House got 13 new measures. Most of them were minor.

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison introduced a Senate bill to prohibit absentee voting.

In the House: Pulaski Rep. Glenn Walter introduced a bill to set up a Nursing Homes Advisory Board to regulate nursing homes. Newton Rep. W.D. Baker introduced a bill to repeal the tax on honey.

Van Buren Rep. M. H. Evans introduced an amendment to the state's grave robbing law to provide for a maximum 21-year prison term. Saline Rep. Virgil Fletcher introduced a measure to set up a state Board of Veterinary Examiners to license and regulate veterinarians.

Conway Rep. Clay Brazil introduced a bill to require doctors, dentists and hospitals to provide patients with a copy of their medical records.

Two proposed constitutional amendments hit the floor of the House. Pulaski Rep. Ben Allen's bill would reduce the number of justices of the peace in most counties. Pulaski Rep. Jim Brandon's measure would authorize the use of voting machines.

Both houses passed bills establishing the State Police headquarters at Warren as a permanent memorial to the late C. C. Hollensworth, a long-time House member and former speaker who died in 1959.

Faubus said Thursday that the legislative session would keep him from attending the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy next week. He said he would send Dan Stephens, an aide, as his official representative.

Faubus added that if it were not for the legislature, he would attend the inauguration.

LOOK WHO'S RIDING SHOTGUN... AGAIN

baseball duties. A second assistant may be named.

Watkins had three losing seasons and resigned after a dismal 1-7-2 record in 1960. He will stay on as track coach and physical education instructor.

Ouachita President Dr. Ralph A. Phelps Jr. said Rodgers was among 30 applicants and eight selected by the board for final screening. He said the board felt Rodgers did not get a fair chance at the football job in his earlier tenure because the school was not then subsidizing the sport.

Rodgers' greatest year in his eight year span was 1953, when the Tigers had a 7-1 record as an independent.

Rodgers was assured at least a three-year term as football coach.

The new coach, who is 47, is a native of Tupelo, Miss., and was a All - Southeastern Conference halfback at Mississippi in 1935. He coached at several high schools and junior colleges before going to Ouachita in 1950.

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Here is a Arkansas fishing forecast from the State Game and Fish Commission:

Bull Shoals Lake, water conditions good, bass fair on twin spin.

Lake Hamilton, water clear and five-foot low, bass fair on artificial bait, crappie fair on minnows and artificial bait, bream poor.

Lake Ouachita, upper end dingy, bass fair on artificial bait.

Lakes Greeson, Conway and Norfolk, fishing poor.

Houston Again Ruins Bradley's Winning Streak

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas, sub. is big, bold, brash and — to Bradley's basketball Braves—just plain bad!

For the second time in two seasons, the University of Houston has derailed one of Bradley's unbeaten streaks. Thursday night, it was a 60-59 upset that snapped the Braves' nation-leading major college winning string at 18. Bradley had started the new one, which carried through the National Invitation Tournament championship and 12 games this season, after having a 15-game streak broken by the same big, bold, brash and bad Houston on Feb. 22 last year.

It was an Illinois boy—hailing from Wood River about 150 miles south of Bradley's Peoria campus—who applied the string-snapper in the intersectional game at Houston.

Jim Lemmon, a 6-2 senior, sank a free throw with 35 seconds left to close out the victory over the nation's No. 2 team and one of five major unbeaten clubs in the country. The two trips to Houston have cost the Braves a 35-game streak.

The Braves remain the Missouri Valley Conference leader and favorite since Houston (now 8-7) pulled out of the league this year, but other MVC clubs showed there are other pitfalls ahead.

Reawakening Cincinnati (10-3) survived a shower of debris from unhappy Wichita fans and crushed the Wheatshockers 80-57 for a 2-2 league record as soph Tom Thacker's 20 points led a balanced attack. Tulsa held Drake's high-scoring Gus Guydon without a point in the first half while handing the Bulldogs their second loss in 12 games, 81-69. St. Louis (10-4) was the only favorite to win-roaring North Texas State (1-10) 60-40.

Virginia Tech (5-0) and West Virginia (5-1) remained a half-game apart in the Southern Conference. Tech, winning its seventh against two losses over-all, over VMI 78-63 as Chris Smith scored 26 points. Sophomore Rod Thorn fired 32 points in a 105-87 rout of George Washington that extended West Virginia's winning streak to eight and its over-all record to 10-2.

Dave King's tip-in with 20 seconds left gave Connecticut its third straight Yankee Conference victory, 79-77 over New Hampshire, and Utah's defending champions made it 2-0 in Skyline Conference tussling 111-66 over New Mexico as Billy McGill scored 27 points.

All five Notre Dame starters hit double figures, led by John Tully's 16, in a 76-54 romp over St. Francis (Pa.), and 26 points by Tom Conard and 21 by Jerry Smith led Furman's 70-61 victory over Clemson.
